Dear Mr. Bogdan Chiriac,

It is with great pleasure that, on behalf of the FIP Bureau and the FIP Council, FIP welcomes your organisation as a member organisation. The Council decided with a majority vote to admit your organisation to FIP membership during the Council Meeting, which took place on 31st August 2024 in Cape Town, South Africa.

Your membership of FIP will offer many benefits including:

- Access to global trends and advances through newsletters, other publications, and congress sessions
- Knowledge of best practices through a global database of projects and reports
- Evidence on activities, services and policies
- Personalised support on practice and advocacy through one-to-one consultancy
- Advocacy tools and support through FIP statements, joint declarations and more
- Being part of a global network of pharmacy leaders through virtual and face-to-face contact

I invite you to review the attached presentation, which will give you an in-depth description of these benefits.

I also encourage you to visit the FIP website, www.fip.org, which contains member-organisation-only content. You can access this website with your organisation's Member ID and password which will be emailed to you shortly.

We would welcome an introduction meeting with your organisation and leadership to provide an overview of FIP, our programmes, engagement opportunities, and. Please provide us with options of dates and times when you are available to schedule this meeting in the coming weeks.

In order for our organisations to maintain close contact and to ensure you receive all our communications, please complete the contact information form in the attached Word document.

Furthermore, we shall be sending you an invoice for 2025 membership fees soon. Kindly note that it is a requirement to pay the annual membership fee in order to officially become a Member Organisation of FIP.
